

Vertical Adhesive Strips

These adhesive strips can be added to the occlusal of the appliance to evaluate if additional vertical will improve results. They can be trimmed for a better fit and can be added one on top of the other as needed. If a noticeable difference is seen, more acrylic can be added to the device.

